A New Sunday for Youth

The updated Sunday class schedule and the new For the Strength of Youth curriculum

- Classes every week
- 25-minute lessons
- One FSY chapter each month

An introduction for youth, parents, and leaders

Three Things to Take Home

How to use the new FSY guide

Each month's chapter gives us eternal truths, invitations, and promised blessings — the heart of every Sunday lesson.

How to use the new magazine

The monthly FSY magazine carries each Sunday's lesson and brings the theme home to your family all month.

How the youth can participate

These classes are discussions, not lectures — every youth can share, teach, testify, and lead.

Sunday lessons build on that chapter

The First Presidency wrote that the guide helps youth “build a solid foundation for making choices to stay on the path that leads to eternal life.”

Each chapter contains “eternal truths, invitations, and promised blessings.”

Emily Belle Freeman · Young Women General President

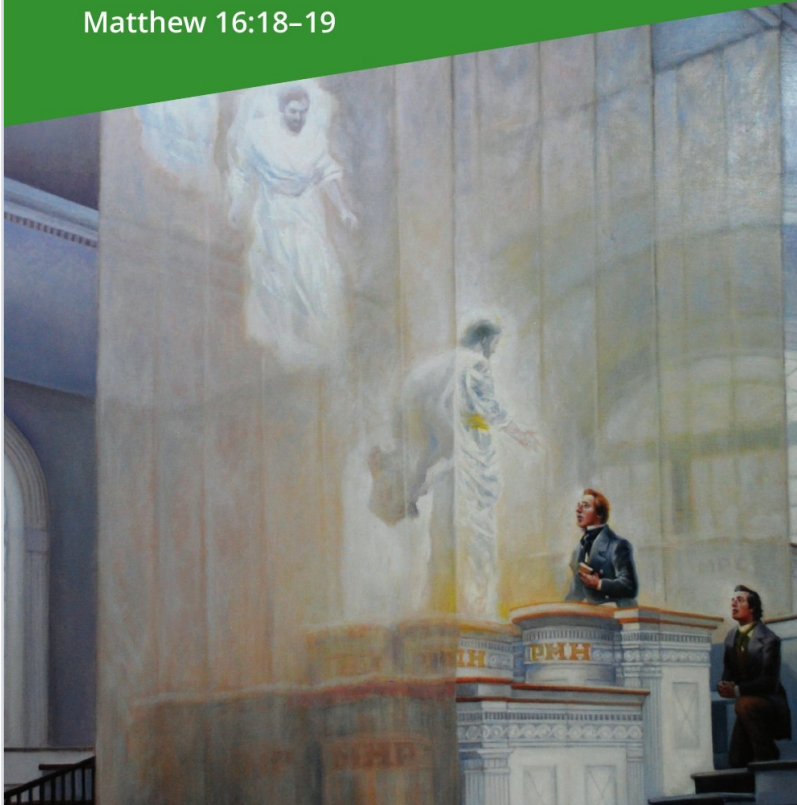

The guide will “help young men and young women focus on Christ, know His doctrine, and listen to the Spirit.”

Timothy L. Farnes · Young Men General President

Chapter 9 in the Guide — Pages 46-47

9. You are blessed by priesthood keys and authority

Matthew 16:18-19

When Jesus taught Peter about priesthood authority, He spoke of keys. Keys are used to unlock and open things. Priesthood keys can unlock God's power, gifts, and blessings in your life.

ETERNAL TRUTHS

All priesthood keys and authority come through Jesus Christ.

Every priesthood holder can trace his authority back to Him. The Savior determines who receives this authority and who receives priesthood keys. We trust His perfect knowledge.

Jesus Christ has restored His priesthood in our day. He directs how the priesthood will be used. Adam, Moses, Peter, and many other prophets throughout history received priesthood keys. In our day, Joseph Smith received priesthood keys from John the Baptist, Peter, Moses, Elias, Elijah, and others. The members of the First Presidency and the Quorum of the Twelve Apostles hold all priesthood keys on earth today. Local priesthood leaders and quorum presidents also hold priesthood keys for their callings. Priesthood keys govern God's work. They authorize and empower men and women to assist in that work.

Priesthood authority blesses all of God's children. Because the priesthood was restored, you can receive ordinances and make covenants with God. You can act in the name of God when you receive an assignment or calling from someone with authority.

INVITATIONS

Accept Church callings and serve faithfully. When you receive a Church calling, you are set apart with authority from God to serve in that role. You can also receive guidance from God for your service. As you serve, you represent Jesus Christ. Give Him your best.

Chapter 9 in the Guide — Pages 48-49

Sustain those who God has called to serve. To sustain means more than just raising your hand when a name is read in a Church meeting. It means to support and help. Look for ways to show that you sustain the people Jesus Christ has called to serve in His Church.

Fulfill assignments from your Church leaders—including from your quorum or class presidency. They have authority from God, which they delegate to you for that assignment. You might be assigned to minister to someone, welcome people as they arrive at sacrament meeting, or help with an activity. Whatever the assignment is, see it as an opportunity to be a disciple of Jesus Christ and serve God's children.

PROMISED BLESSINGS

You can trust that the ordinances you receive are authorized by Jesus Christ. This is one of the things that makes the Church of Jesus Christ unique. Through priesthood ordinances, the power of God is manifest.

You will become an instrument in the Lord's hands. As you serve the Lord with His authority and under the direction of His servants who hold priesthood keys, He will help you know how to serve others in His work. Jesus Christ is your strength. Your service will help you draw closer to Him and bring you joy.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Who in my ward holds priesthood keys? The bishop and the presidents of the elders, teachers, and deacons quorums hold priesthood keys. This means the Lord has assigned them to direct how the priesthood is used to serve and bless everyone in the ward.

How do priesthood keys bless me? Ordinances like baptism and the sacrament are authorized by priesthood keys. When you receive a calling in the Church, you are set apart under the direction of someone who holds keys. This blesses you with the authority to serve in that calling. Church leaders and teachers who serve you also received priesthood authority through keys.

How do men and women serve with priesthood authority?

Worthy men have the priesthood conferred upon them and are ordained to priesthood offices like deacon, teacher, priest, and elder. Both women and men who are set apart to serve in a calling receive delegated priesthood authority from God to fulfill that calling. The same is true for women and men who receive an assignment from a Church leader.

See Doctrine and Covenants 35:24–27 (the Church is led by the keys the Lord has given); 107:18–20 (keys of the Melchizedek Priesthood and Aaronic Priesthood); 110:11–16 (Moses, Elias, and Elijah restored keys).

TEMPLE RECOMMEND QUESTIONS

Do you sustain the President of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints as the prophet, seer, and revelator and as the only person on the earth authorized to exercise all priesthood keys?

Do you sustain the members of the First Presidency and the Quorum of the Twelve Apostles as prophets, seers, and revelators?

Do you sustain the other General Authorities and local leaders of the Church?

THE ANNOUNCEMENT

More Than a Schedule Change

Announced March 30, 2026

The First Presidency announced changes to the Sunday class meeting schedule along with a new curriculum for youth.

Begins September 6, 2026

The first Sunday under the new schedule. Classes meet every week in wards and branches worldwide.

Centered on the FSJ guide

Youth lessons draw on the updated For the Strength of Youth: A Guide for Making Choices and the scriptures.

Together, these changes create simple and meaningful ways to grow closer to Jesus Christ and feel more connected to Him and each other.

AT A GLANCE

What's Different?

UNTIL NOW

- Classes alternated: Sunday School on 1st and 3rd Sundays; quorums and classes on 2nd and 4th
- One 50-minute class each week
- Youth lessons drew on recent general conference messages

BEGINNING SEPTEMBER 6

- ✓ Every organization meets every Sunday
- ✓ Two 25-minute classes after sacrament meeting
- ✓ YW & AP lessons come from the new FSY-guide curriculum
- ✓ Relief Society & elders quorum discuss general conference messages

ONE CHAPTER, FOUR SUNDAYS

The Rhythm of Each Month

FAST SUNDAY

Study the chapter

Youth read and discuss the month's FSY chapter — its truths, invitations, and promised blessings.

SECOND SUNDAY

Go deeper

Lessons explore the doctrine behind the monthly theme in the scriptures and the words of prophets.

THIRD SUNDAY

Keep exploring

Youth continue the theme, ask questions, share experiences, and apply it to their own lives.

LAST SUNDAY

YW & AP focus

Young Women and Aaronic Priesthood quorums each have a lesson written just for them.

And every week: youth Sunday School continues to study the scriptures with Come, Follow Me, and the FSY magazine adds monthly stories and articles on the same theme.

Inside a Fast Sunday Lesson

Choose an eternal truth

Pick a truth from the chapter and share thoughts and questions about it.

Read a scripture together

Find verses that support it — what message does God have for you in it?

Share a personal story

An experience living this truth, or a promised blessing the Lord has kept.

Testify

Share what you know from your own experience and what the Spirit has taught you.

Then: repeat with another truth as time allows — and each fast Sunday, choose an invitation from the guide (or one of your own) to live that month.

Fast Sunday & Second Sunday

FAST SUNDAY

In September, the topic of discussion in our Young Women classes and Aaronic Priesthood quorums will be “You are blessed by priesthood keys and authority” (For the Strength of Youth: A Guide for Making Choices, 46–49).

Here are some ideas that can guide your discussion:

STUDY THE CHAPTER FROM THE FSY GUIDE

Choose an eternal truth to discuss. Share thoughts or questions you have about this truth.

Read a scripture together that supports this truth (you can find some verses at the end of the chapter). What message does God have for you in this scripture?

Share a personal story about this truth—maybe an experience you’ve had trying to live it. You could read one of the promised blessings listed in the FSY guide and talk about how the Lord keeps His promises.

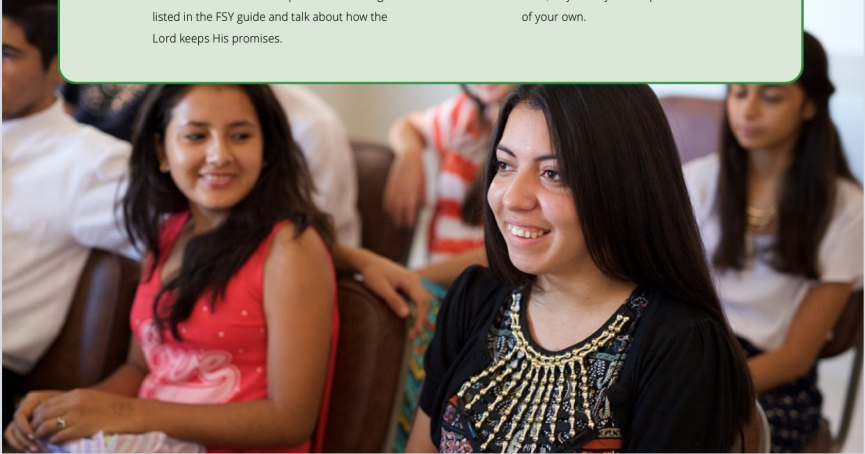

Testify. Share what you know about this truth from your own experience and what the Spirit has taught you.

Choose another eternal truth, and repeat this pattern for the rest of the chapter.

Choose an invitation, each fast Sunday, that will help you live what you learned. The FSY guide has several invitations to choose from, or you may feel inspired to think of one of your own.

LEARN MORE ABOUT THE RESTORATION OF THE PRIESTHOOD

After Jesus’s New Testament Apostles died, the priesthood—the power and authority of God—was lost from the earth. In the early 1800s, God sent heavenly messengers to restore, or bring back, the priesthood. Through the authority of the priesthood and its ordinances, greater access to the power of God is available to all of us once again.

Here are some questions and learning activities you could try:

- How does the Savior bless us through the Aaronic Priesthood?
Read Doctrine and Covenants 13:1 and 107:20. What rights and authority did John the Baptist restore to the Prophet Joseph Smith and Oliver Cowdery? Write down words that describe blessings God gives through the Aaronic Priesthood.
- How does the Savior bless us through the Melchizedek Priesthood?
Peter, James, and John restored the Melchizedek Priesthood to Joseph and Oliver. Read Doctrine and Covenants 107:18–19 and list some of the “spiritual blessings of the Church” you can access through the Melchizedek Priesthood.
- Why does God share His priesthood power with His children?
Through priesthood ordinances—like baptism, the sacrament, and temple ordinances—“the power of godliness is manifest” (see Doctrine and Covenants 84:20–21). Talk with each other about how you have seen the power of God in your life because of the ordinances of the priesthood. What would your life be like without these ordinances?
- How would your life be different if the priesthood hadn’t been restored?

Third Sunday: Priesthood Keys

THIRD SUNDAY

LEARN MORE ABOUT PRIESTHOOD KEYS

Priesthood keys unlock God's greatest blessings for His children. Priesthood keys are the authority God gives to certain leaders in His Church to organize and direct the kingdom of God on the earth. Those who hold priesthood keys direct how the priesthood is used in the Church.

OTHER RESOURCES

- Guide to the Scriptures, "Keys of the Priesthood"
- "Restoration of the Priesthood and Priesthood Keys," Preach My Gospel, 40
- Topics and Questions, "Priesthood Keys" (Gospel Library)

Here are some questions and learning activities you could try:

What is delegated priesthood authority?

If you've ever been set apart for a calling or received an assignment under the direction of a leader with priesthood keys, you were given delegated priesthood authority. Discuss what it means "to represent God and act in His name."¹

What blessings does the Lord unlock for us through priesthood keys?

Talk about what physical keys are used for. Then discuss this description of priesthood keys: "Priesthood authority and priesthood keys start the engine, open the gates of heaven, facilitate heavenly power, and pave the covenant pathway back to our loving Heavenly Father."²

Why can't you drive your neighbor's car? What would you need in order to do so? What does this comparison teach you about priesthood keys?

What priesthood keys has the Lord restored to the earth today?

After the death of Christ and His Apostles, priesthood keys were lost from the earth. Fill out the table below to learn how the Lord restored priesthood keys in our day.

The Month Opener & a Midweek Activity

SEPTEMBER

YOU ARE BLESSED BY PRIESTHOOD KEYS AND AUTHORITY

If someone asked you what priesthood keys are, how would you answer them?

Have you ever thought about what your life would be like if God's priesthood authority had never been restored?

YOUTH ACTIVITY IDEA

THE ONE-MATCH FIRE CHALLENGE

Can you build a fire, using a single match, that's hot enough to burn a string 18 inches above the ground?

PURPOSE

To understand how we can access God's power in our lives.

MATERIALS NEEDED

- Matches
- Tinder or kindling
- String or twine
- Buckets of water or fire extinguishers
- Fire-safe surface (gravel, sand, fire rings, or cleared ground)

LOCATION

- Outdoors, in a fire-safe area (follow local laws)
- Make sure that there are no low-hanging tree branches
- Avoid windy or drought conditions

SAFETY

- Adult leaders ensure that youth are safe and instruct them on fire safety
- Make sure that fire suppression tools are always on hand
- Keep the fire 15 feet away from dry grass and other combustible material
- No gasoline, lighter fluid, or other accelerants
- Thoroughly extinguish the fire, and never leave the fire or hot coals unattended

THE CHALLENGE

- Explain that fire requires heat, oxygen, and fuel.
- Youth gather and prepare materials before lighting the match.
- Each youth (or pair) is given one match per attempt.
- The goal is to build a fire strong enough to burn through a string that is held or suspended 18 inches above the ground.
- If the fire goes out, youth must discard materials that touched the flame and begin again, as time allows.

LET'S TALK ABOUT IT

How is a fire like God's power in our lives?

How are the elements of building a fire like the elements needed to access God's power in our lives?

For example, how could a match be like priesthood authority? How could the wood or kindling be like priesthood ordinances, such as baptism or the sacrament?

YOU MIGHT POINT OUT

A match has power—but only if it's used the right way. Similarly, priesthood authority, used as God directs, can help unlock God's power, providing warmth and light. For example, God directs that His authority be used to make ordinances of salvation available to His children, and "in the ordinances . . . the power of godliness is manifest" (Doctrine and Covenants 84:20) Priesthood authority, sacred ordinances, and keeping covenants combine to bring the warmth and light of God's power into our lives.

PAUSE AND DISCUSS

Let's Talk About It

How will we be blessed by the updated FSY guide and the new Sunday curriculum?

Doctrine and Covenants 88:122 teaches that all may speak and all may be edified. How can we make our classes places where everyone feels uplifted?

How can we use the new schedule and guides to build stronger relationships in our quorums and classes?
